Chapter 1 by Baan

Abdullah seemed to like his ear. It always hung just out of his vision. He could flick it, but he only did that when looking in the mirror, because he found it no fun flicking his ear if he couldn't see his ear. One day his ear had had enough. It wanted to be a comedian that specialised in puns. However, sometimes his puns were so clever or so good, that people did not realise they were puns. So he always put Drum Sounds after making one. So he dropped off Abdullah's head.

Chapter 2 by Abdullah

The ear ran for it, he dreamt of a new life, one where he was called Name, he heard people with that phrase too, it was their Name and he wanted one too.
